Learning Never Retires

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at the University of Pittsburgh offers adults age 50 and older a rich array of noncredit courses, lectures, and events. And there are no education requirements—just the desire to continue learning.

Here’s a selection of some of the OLLI courses being offered fall 2013:

* Plays of Tennessee Williams
* Meet the Authors
* Female Voices in American Theatre
* Jazz Sampler
* The Beatles, 1964-1970
* Operas of Verdi and Wagner
* Who was Jesus of Nazareth?
* Religions of Ancient Egypt
* Conversations about the Psalms
* Oriental Painting
* Digital Photography Walk and Shoot
* Monday Morning Quarterbacking
* Fundamentals of Investing
* T’ai Chi Ch’uan
* Managing Stress for Better Health
* Elder Law
* Languages (French, Spanish, Italian)
* Minerals of the Museum
* Pittsburgh in the 20th Century
* Memoir and Home
* August Wilson’s Pittsburgh
* Politics of Reproduction
* Genetic Technologies and Genetic Testing
  And much, much more!

Classes begin the week of September 9. There’s no waiting list so join today!

Want to learn more about the benefits of being an OLLI member?

Open House
Wednesday, July 31, 10 a.m. - noon
Fourth Floor, Cathedral of Learning
Information sessions at 10 and 11 a.m.
To RSVP or for more information call 412-624-7308