The Steele Gow Scholarship is offered through the College of General Studies and the CGS Student Government to students who have financial need and who are actively involved in CGS student organizations. This award, in the amount of $2,000 for the academic year, $1,000 for each the fall and spring term, is applied directly to the student's tuition.

Applicants must compose a one-page letter addressing the following questions: Why did you enroll in CGS? How/why did you choose your CGS major? What campus/CGS organizations do you participate in and why? What are your plans after graduation? Finalists may have an interview with the selection committee. Awardees will be announced at the CGS Excellence Reception, held Friday, April 15 at 6pm in the Pittsburgh Athletic Association – Schenley Room. Contact Adam Robinson (awr15@pitt.edu) with questions about the Steele Gow Scholarship. The deadline for application is Monday, March 28, 2016.
