

Join our team!

Become a Federal Police Officer

Supreme Court of the United States Police Department

1 First Street N.E., Washington, DC 20543

Joinscuspd@supremecourt.gov • Fax: 202-479-5973

Police Officer of the Supreme Court of the United States

Responsibilities: Serve as a uniformed police officer with the Supreme Court of the United States. Supreme Court Police are primarily responsible for protecting the Chief Justice, Associate Justices, building occupants and the Court's building and grounds. Additional responsibilities include Courtroom security, dignitary protection, emergency response and providing assistance to building visitors.

Benefits: Paid vacation, sick leave, holidays, life insurance, health benefits, premium pay and eligibility for retirement with 20 years of service at age 50, or 25 years of service at any age.

2018 Pay Scale	Position Title	Salary
	Private	$60, 615
	Private after Training	$62,740
	Private First Class	$70,348–$109,153

Minimum Requirements:

- U.S. Citizen
- Bachelor's Degree and/or prior sworn law enforcement experience
- Between 21 and 36 years old
- Valid driver's license with excellent driving record
- No felony convictions and must not be currently involved in any pending criminal charges
- Prior military service must be separated under honorable conditions
- Employment is subject to successful completion of a written exam, oral board interview, background investigation interview, psychological exam, medical exam and a comprehensive background investigation.

To apply, email or fax: Resume, cover letter, and OF-306 (https://www.opm.gov/forms/pdf_fill/of0306.pdf).